From Ted Kellaway of Durban

Emmeline Harriette BROWN was one of the first two female telegraphists appointed to Bristol where she met her future husband who was a telegraphist there at that time

H V Kellaway inaugurated the Durban Society of Model Engineers and Kellaway Park is named after him.

I L Merryweather was an exceptional student and Dux of Durban Girls College 1913. She became a teacher, specialising in English and Mathematics.
